Tana, as you know, George Mathis has been living in Poland for the past couple of weeks and came back over the weekend. He has asked me to tell you that he will be in Prague on Thursday and that he will be staying in Praha. He would like to know if you could plan on meeting him for a coffee. Vince is not in Prague at this time. I don't know if he is going to be in Prague before mid-February or not. Regards, Jim.Q: Define a JSON value in a R response file This is my first time creating a R response file, so maybe I'm missing something obvious: {r my_response, include = paste('.r', Sys.Date(), sep="), echo = TRUE, comment=FALSE} This results in {r my_response, include = paste('.r', Sys.Date(), sep="), echo = TRUE, comment=FALSE,
